

CONTINUE FIGHT FOR NEW LAWS

ACTION OF STATE ASSOCIATION WILL NOT DETER LARGER BANKERS.

Measures Will Surely Be Submitted to Next Legislature—Some of the Plans in View.

The effort to secure a revision of the state banking laws and an inspection system for state banks will not be abandoned because the Ohio Bankers' Association declined to vote approval to the measure drafted by Attorney Brauns Wuslin of Cincinnati.

That measure or some other embodying the same material features will be presented to the legislature, so prominent bankers state, and it will be presented with the formal request from the largest banking interests of the state that it be given careful consideration and enacted into law. The most influential bankers in Ohio will personally appear at Columbus to declare that such a measure is a prime necessity and point out reasons why it should be passed.

If the measure proposed lacks the endorsement of the Ohio bankers as an organization, it will have the individual endorsement of the largest savings institutions of the state. The men who are custodians of four-fifths of the savings of the Ohio people will ask that the legislature provide revised laws and frequent inspection of all banks and savings societies in the state for the purpose of protecting the funds of the people deposited in the banks.

The various commercial organizations of the state have approved such a measure. The trust section of the Ohio bankers is known to favor a strong and board measure that affords ample opportunity for proper methods of banking and provides judicious inspection to see that the law is enforced.

The probabilities are that the measure will be revised, submitted to the various bankers of the state for suggestions and then presented to the legislature. The largest banks in the state are for inspection.

GREAT INCREASE

Is Shown in the Railroad Business in Canton for the Past Year.

The railroad business in Canton this year shows a great increase over that of last year, both in the passenger and freight department. All passenger trains both to and from the city are well filled, and the freight departments of the different roads are having trouble in handling the business on account of a shortage in cars.

The interurban trolley lines are also doing a heavy business. All cars are well filled, and several extra cars have been put on to take care of the freight and express business.

WERE DRENCHED

And Many of the Pupils Had to Be Sent Home on Account of the Rain.

The attendance at the schools yesterday was very light, as the rain coming up at the time it did kept the students at home. Those who did venture out were so wet by the time they reached school that many of them, especially in the lower grades were sent home. In the high school the attendance fell off about one-third, and in the ward buildings the percentage was about one-half.

Auto Victim Is Recovering.

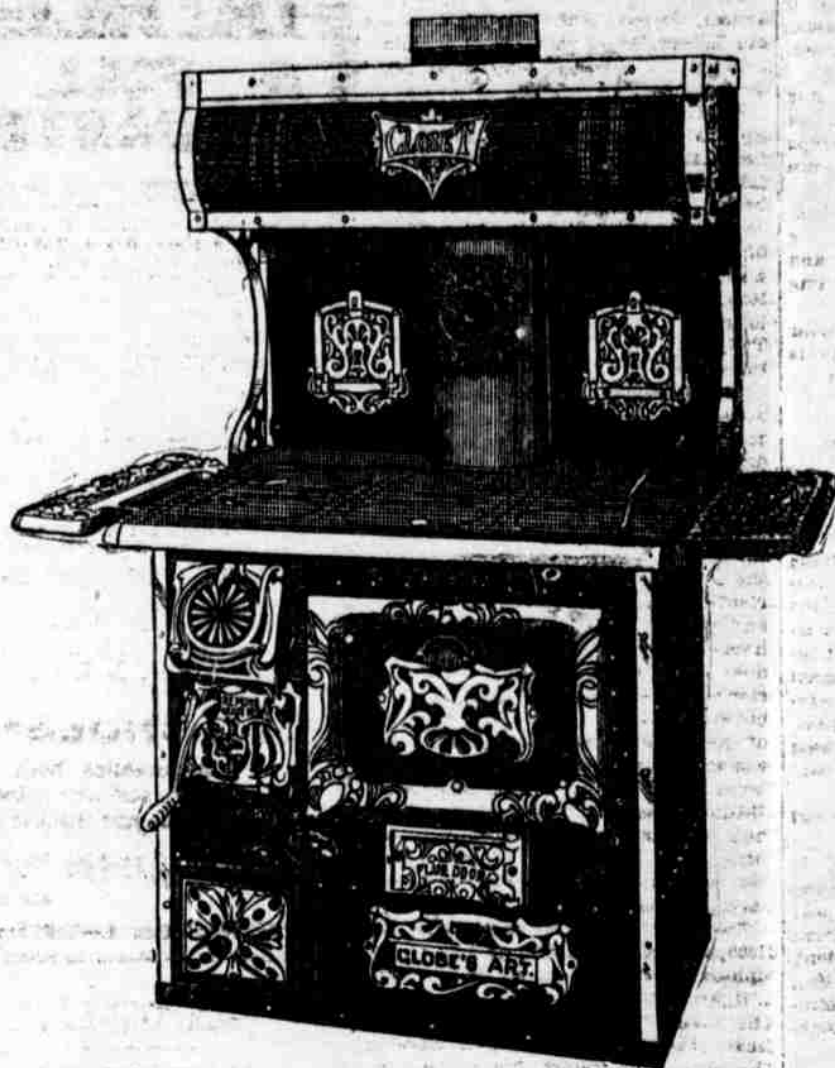

Hartville, Oct. 2.—Felix Henn, whose horse took fright at an automobile last Sunday and ran away throwing Mr. Henn out and giving him a bad shaking up, is recovering from his injuries, and is now able to walk without the aid of crutches, although still quite lame.

For fish of all kinds, fresh oysters, the best in the market. See Zerbo, 133 South Walnut street. Both phones.

If It's Credit You Want The Globe Asks Your Attention

ANNUAL REUNION

Of the 104th Ohio Infantry to Be Held in Canton.

The thirty-sixth reunion of the 104th regiment of Ohio infantry will be held in this city on Oct. 11 and 12. The meetings will be held in the assembly room and a good program is being arranged for the two days.

There are about 300 survivors of this famous regiment, and it is expected that fully one-half of these will be present. Also their families. On the second evening a camp fire will be held.

The officers of the regiment are: C. Bomberger, president; W. H. Little, secretary; L. R. Lawrence, treasurer.

New Project For Alliance.

Alliance, Oct. 2.—For those who are not yet so informed, it is well to announce that recently there has been planted in this city, a new business. For the conduct of such business, a commodious structure is now building at the rear of Dr. C. L. Morgan's, 312 South Arch street. In this building there will be one compartment for the storage of automobiles for hire; another for repairs; still another for a sales room. Dr. Morgan and son who will manage the business will handle the best makes, the Winton, Cadillac and the White Steamer. For the latter they are the sole agents for Stark county. This building, together with its equipment, will be known as a "Garage." It is needless to state that the automobile has come to stay. It is serving well its purpose. For the projectors of this new enterprise in Alliance success is predicted.

Celery Shippers Are Active.
Hartville, Oct. 2.—The Celery Growers' association expects to begin shipping celery on a large scale on Monday when they will begin shipping a car load a day for five days of each week.

Death of Harrison Township Resident.
Magnolia, Oct. 2.—George Hazlet, an aged resident of Harrison township, died last Sunday and was interred at Macedonia.

THE "CAPPER"

Refused to "Cap" and Sneaked Off
With the "Capper's" Money.

If the published reports are true, there will be a novel case tried in the mayor's court this morning, when an Alliance man by the name of L. D. Lindley will have to stand trial for the alleged taking of $6 that he won while acting as a capper for a fakir at the Stark county fair. It is claimed that he was to ostensibly win money so that the greenhorns would put down their cash. It is alleged that, in place of returning the money he so obtained, he kept it, and the fakir had him arrested.

This morning the facts will be brought out.

Call to Indiana Minister.
Philomathian Hall, Oct. 2.—A call has been issued by the St. Peters Reformed church to Rev. G. H. Wolbach, of Auburn, Ind. Rev. Wolbach preached trial sermons to the different congregations of the church and received a unanimous vote.

Runaway Team Did Damage.
Pleasant Valley, Oct. 2.—While Curtis Stambach was returning home from Canton on Thursday his team became unruly and ran away doing considerable damage to the wagon and to the team also.
